Observation of World Breastfeeding week 2022

Theme- Step up for breastfeeding: Educate and Support

Observation of world breastfeeding week is one of the essential part of creating awareness and emphasize upon the importance of breastfeeding among mothers. This year's theme is apt for the reason of gross decline in breastfeeding practices prevalent among mothers in India.

Our department planned to conduct awareness programme to mothers in co-ordination with staff of Primary Health Centre, Nagavalli.

Pregnant women, lactating mothers and care givers were present.

Awareness on importance of breast milk, colostrum, frequency of feeding, complementary feeding, and advantages of breastfeeding was given. All the queries from the mothers were addressed by the speakers. The event ended with a song cherishing the motherhood.

Observation of World Breastfeeding week 2022

Theme- Step up for breastfeeding: Educate and Support

Observation of world breastfeeding week is one of the essential part of creating awareness and emphasize upon the importance of breastfeeding among mothers. This year's theme is apt for the reason of gross decline in breastfeeding practices prevalent among mothers in India.

Our department planned to conduct awareness programme to mothers in co-ordination with staff of Primary Health Centre, Nagavalli.

Pregnant women, lactating mothers and care givers were present.

Awareness on importance of breast milk, colostrum, frequency of feeding, complementary feeding, and advantages of breastfeeding was given. All the queries from the mothers were addressed by the speakers. The event ended with a song cherishing the motherhood.
