REPORT

CDE Programme : Aesthetic Composite Restorations: Master class in Layering and Precision

A CDE programme on Aesthetic Composite Restorations: Master class in Layering and Precision was conducted by the Department by Dr Raghu T Narayan. The programme started with lamp lightning followed by invocation song. A total of 60 participants attended the lecture which was followed by the demonstration. 27 participants had registered for the handson course. The course helped the participants to improve the skills in composite layering techniques that allows them to recreate natural tooth structure with precision, life like aesthetics and lasting durability.
