Onam Celebration Report - ENT Department, Sri Siddhartha Medical College, Tumkur on 22nd Aug 2026

Participants: Faculty members, postgraduate House Surgeons and undergraduate students,

The Department of ENT at Sri Siddhartha Medical College hosted an exuberant celebration of Onam, the traditional harvest festival of Kerala. The event aimed to bring the essence of Kerala's cultural heritage to the campus, while also promoting inclusivity and cultural exchange among the students and faculty from various backgrounds.

Event Highlights:

Inaugural Ceremony: The event began with a traditional lamp lighting (nilavilakku) by senior faculty members, symbolizing the victory of light over darkness and prosperity. This was followed by an introduction to the significance of Onam, narrated by Dr. Jyothi Swarup, Head of the ENT Department.

The Principal and Vice Principal of the college graced the occasion with their presence, extending their support and encouragement to the department for organising such a culturally enriching event.

Few Activies<Fun Games were Conducted .

Onam Sadhya (Traditional Feast): A sumptuous Onam Sadhya (traditional Kerala feast) was served on banana leaves, including a variety of delicacies such as avial, sambar, payasam, and more. The feast was enjoyed by all, fostering a sense of community and togetherness.

Conclusion:

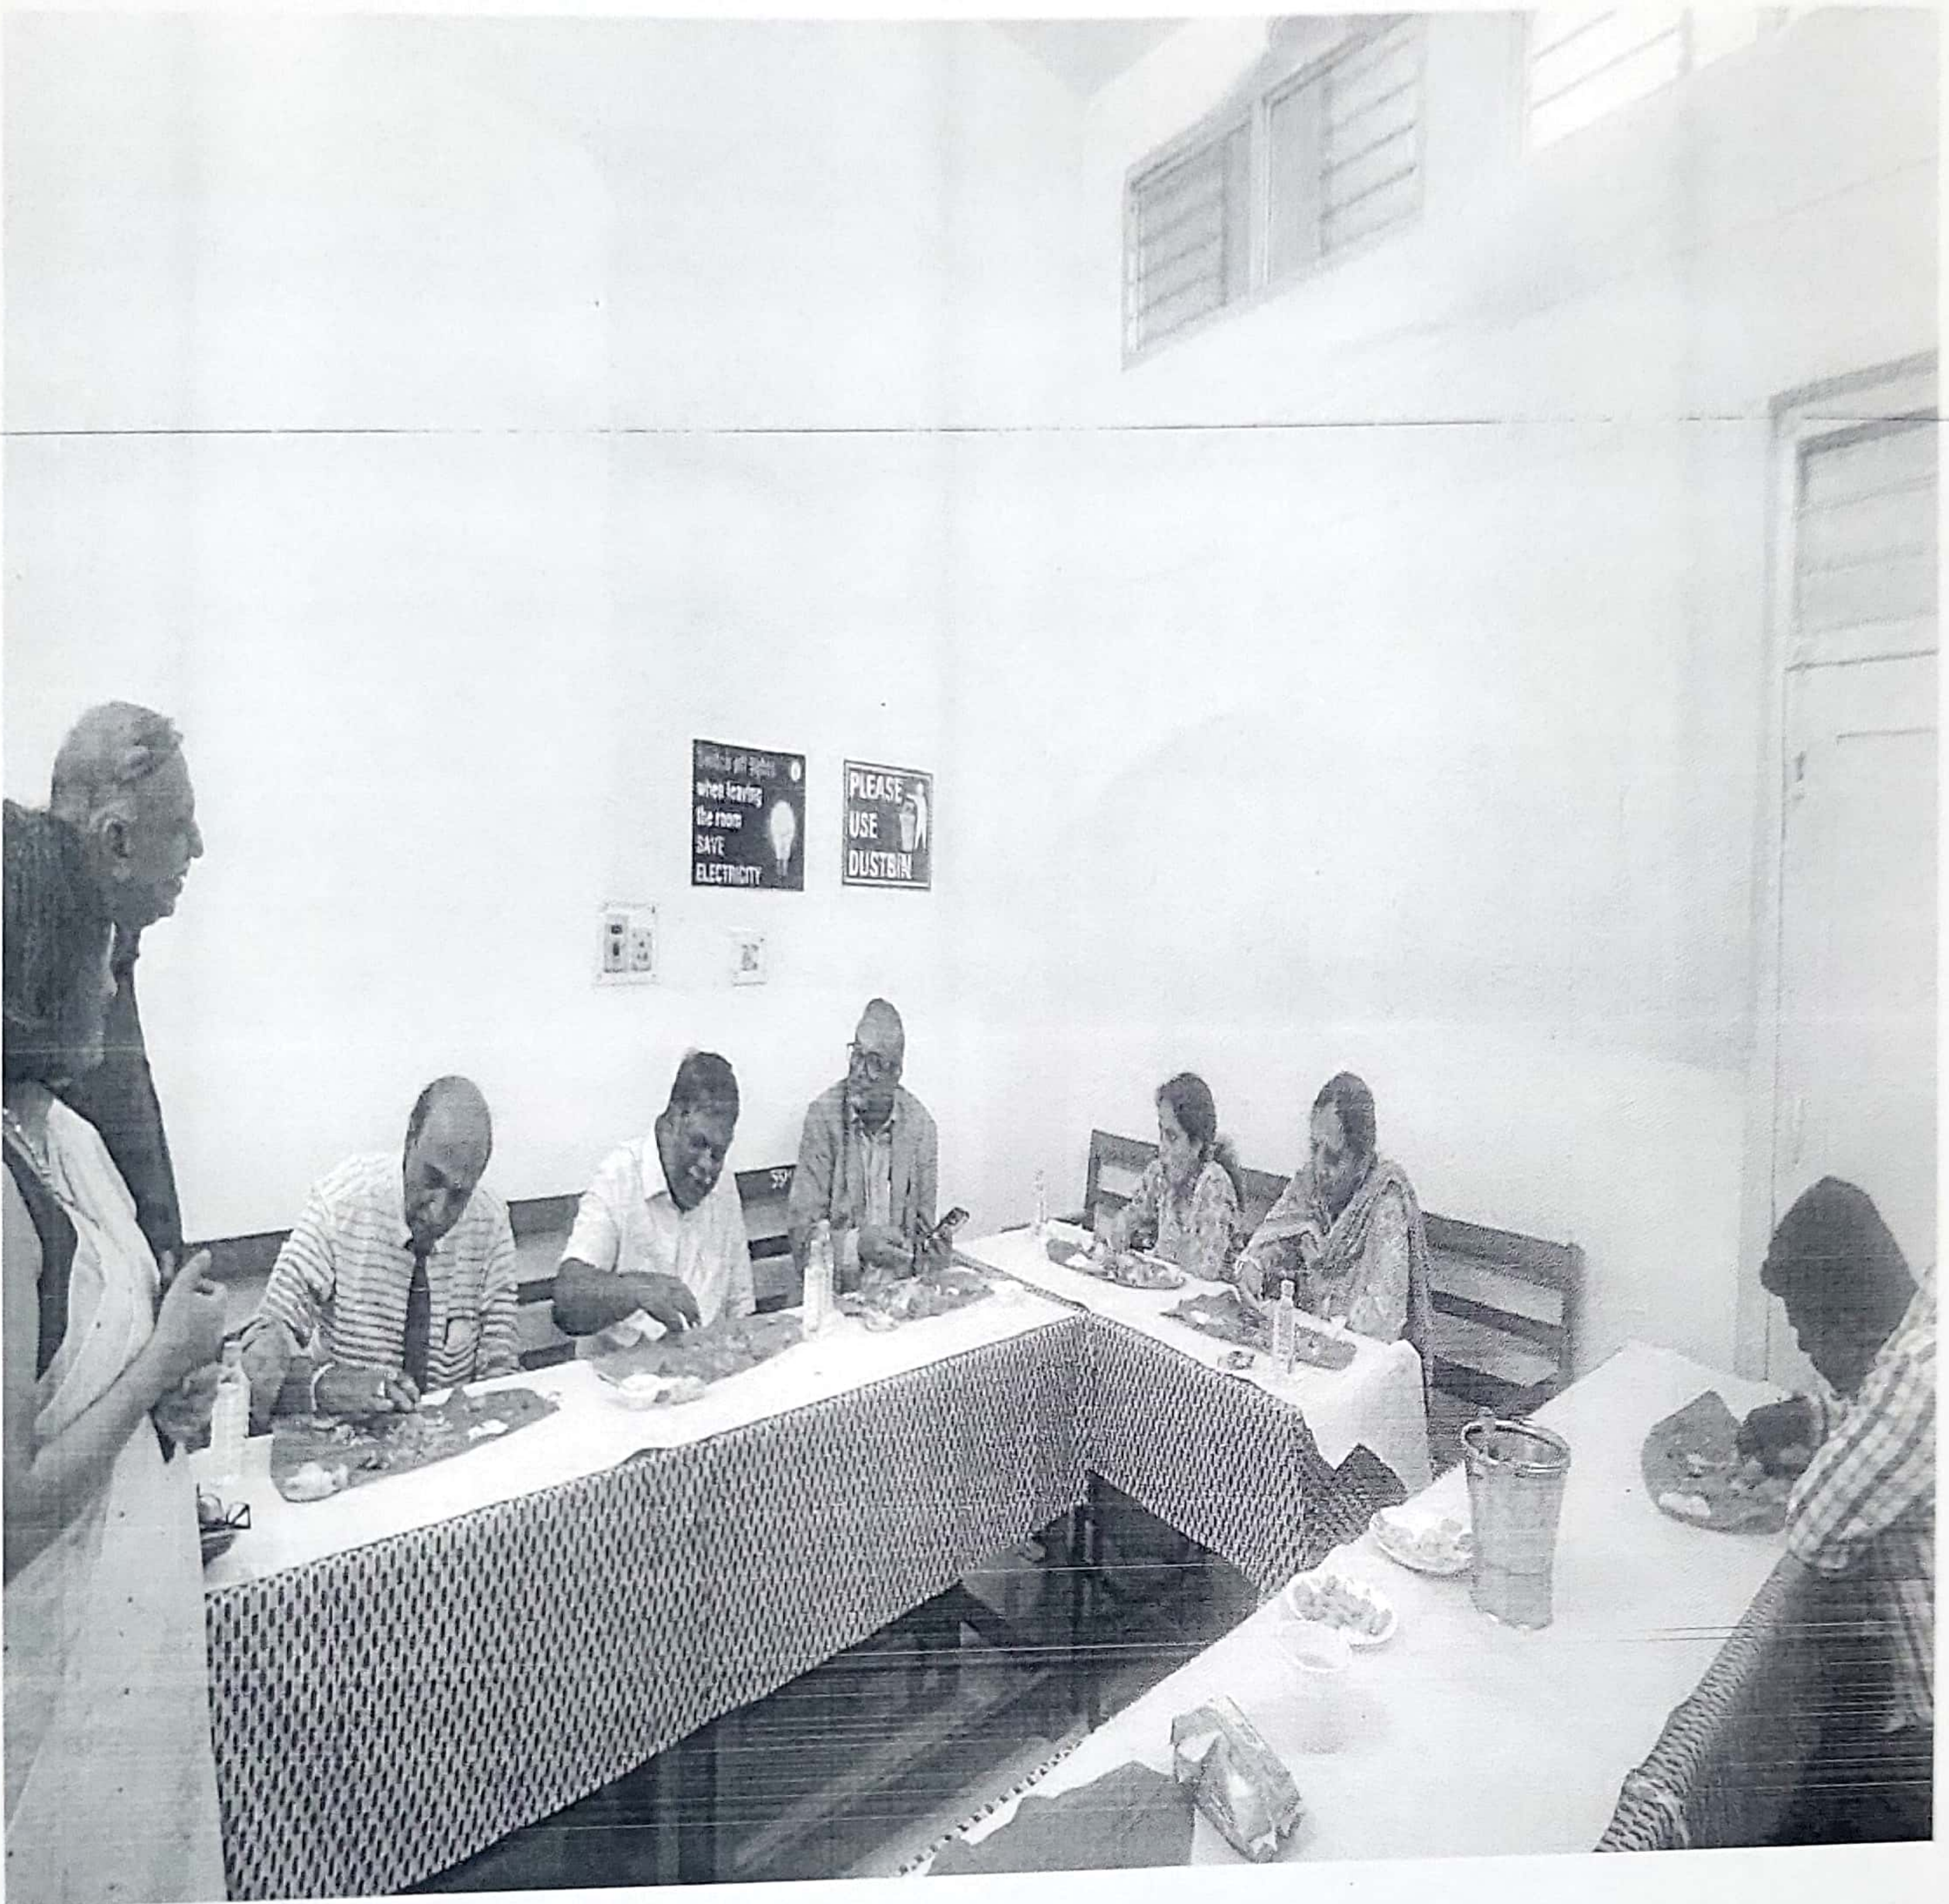

The Onam celebration at the ENT department was a grand success, with active participation from all. The event provided a platform for bonding among the students and faculty.

The event was a testament to Sri Siddhartha Medical College's commitment to promoting cultural diversity and fostering a sense of unity on campus.
