Report:

Women play a pivotal role in shaping society through their strength, compassion, and resilience. In recognition of their invaluable contributions, the International Women's Day celebration at Sri Siddhartha Medical College was conducted on 10 March 2026 with great elegance and enthusiasm. The programme commenced with an invocation, followed by the formal inauguration and the ceremonial lighting of the lamp. The Principal and Vice Principal delivered insightful addresses, emphasizing the significance of women in healthcare and society. A special felicitation ceremony honoured women with bouquets and gifts, symbolising appreciation for their dedication. The event was enlivened by vibrant cultural performances and engaging games and activities. The dress code, pink, added charm to the occasion. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks and high tea
